

Complaints and Appeals Policy

Policy Objective

Clients are provided with a transparent complaints and appeals process that enables them to be informed of and to understand their rights and the RTO's responsibilities under the Standards for RTOs.

Commitment

We acknowledge the rights of clients to complain when dissatisfied and will respond to allegations involving the conduct of the RTO, its staff or learners following the principles of natural justice and procedural fairness.